"When we are in alignment with our purpose, the universe will roll at our feet." -Kafka

As a child in the 1950's, I thoroughly delighted in the re*released movie version of Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm. Shirley Temple starred in the 1938 film version of this classic book about a sunny dispositioned little girl who was displaced when she was sent to live with her two aunts. She was imaginative and quick, charming and in the end, the heroine for her brothers, sisters, and her mother.

I always associate this name with creative traits and the tenacity to see things through, so every time a person with this name crossed my path, I am immediately inspired to give a great deal more of myself to whatever place or situation life found me. Wonderful people with the name Re*becca have continually streamed through my life and each one has indeed been a blessing.

This Biblical name is rooted from the Hebrew language and in Kabalistic terms, it is symbolic for the sun, which attributes itself to the sunny attitude and fun loving demeanor. Rebecca is indicative of being forever an optimist-also, the Kabalistic equivalent of this name is Hebrew for "food" and a love of cooking and eating wonderful food. So indeed, I am in total alignment with this energy. The Rune version of this energy highlights networking and helping others find their truest path. In days gone by, Re*Becca was a cheerful giver, however, with the latest shift of energy from the masculine to the feminine, she has only just recently evolved into a balanced and graceful receiver. She can nurture an idea to its fullest potentiality. Re*becca is highly spiritual and draws from the divine powers within... she is keenly aware she is a beloved child of God. Re*becca enjoys a Universal Nature and has a common bond with all peoples of the world.

Her name is also associated with "to mend", to be favored by God, to be a servant of the Higher Powers that Be, smart, kind, enchantingly beautiful, and to be joined. "Her house will be built with love, her heart is pure. She gives to those in need, and seeks for the GOOD in all." Notice the names of people with whom you come into contact. This week alone, I have had eight Rebecca Re*vealings- ... including my dear friend and web master/editor Rebecca Hayes. Rebecca is the name one of the granite company's co-owners who designed our new counters, the receptionist for some business machines we ordered is named Rebecca, and this week I have had strong recollections of my high school best-friend, Becky Moore Price. My grand daughters favorite DVD and book is Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm and they were very present this week, too. My most recent Feng Shui client is named yes, Rebecca, and lastly a "chance" meeting in the grocery store with a fellow shopper named Rebecca.

I look at the many virtues of this name and Re*Joice for the Re*beccas of the World. She mirrors and inspires the very best in each of us.
